About the Des Moines Symphony Academy

The Des Moines Symphony Academy is housed in the historic Temple for Performing Arts in downtown Des Moines. Since 2003, the Symphony Academy has provided outstanding music education and performance experiences for musicians of all ages. Programs include the Des Moines Symphony Youth Orchestras, private lessons instruction on piano and standard orchestral instruments, chamber music, Group Lessons for Young Beginners, Beginning Strings and summer programs. The Symphony Academy's facility includes nine private teaching studios, two performance halls and is the home of the Des Moines Symphony Orchestra's extensive music library.

Des Moines Symphony Academy Vision

The Des Moines Symphony Academy will be a musical community of excellence where talented and motivated instrumental students will become accomplished musicians through musical study and memorable performances taught, directed and mentored by recognized professional musicians and educators.

A vital extension of the Des Moines Symphony Orchestra, in cooperation with school music and home study programs, the Symphony Academy will encourage and inspire students while building and nurturing collegial relationships.

The Symphony Academy will provide an opportunity for students to pursue excellence and achieve their musical goals; performing, appreciating and preparing a strong foundation for a lifetime of great music.
